Sukkur IBA University

Ethical Consciousness – Rubric

1.2      To apply ethical reasoning in business decision making

| | # | Dimension | Unsatisfactory (0) | Satisfactory (2) | Highly Satisfactory (4) | Score |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| MS Management Sciences Program Learning outcome 1.2 | 1 | Identify | Fails to recognize some basic and obvious ethical issues and fails to grasp complexity or interrelationships | Recognize basic and obvious ethical issues and understand the complexities or interrelationships among the issues. | Properly recognize ethical issues when presented in a complex, multilayered context and can recognize cross-relationship among issues. | |
| | 2 | Analyze | Fails to clearly define a real-world business problem or fails to provide any ethical analysis. | Clearly defines a real-world business problem and provides a basic analysis from an ethical perspective that is briefly outlined. | Clearly defines a real-world business problem and provides an in- depth analysis from a well described ethical perspective. | |
| | 3 | Apply | Fails to infer the ethical implications of the issue based upon ethical perspective(s) | Infer the ethical implications of the issue based upon ethical perspective(s), but few of the inferences are incorrect. | Properly infer the ethical implications of the issue based upon ethical perspective(s) | |

*****