Degrees awarded to over 292 students in 10th Convocation of Sukkur IBA University

Sukkur IBA University (PR): Sukkur IBA University held its 10th convocation on Saturday at its main campus, where around 292 students from various disciplines were awarded degrees by chief guest Secretary Sindh Higher Education Commission Mr. Moinuddin Siddiqui, guest of honor Commissioner Sukkur Mr. Fayyaz Hussain Abbasi and Vice Chancellor Professor Dr Asif Ahmed Shaikh.

The graduating students were conferred degrees in various disciplines including Business Administration, Agri-business, Accounting and Finance, Computer Science, Software Engineering, Electrical engineering, Education, Physical Education and Mathematics.

Speaking as the Chief Guest, Mr. Moinuddin Siddiqui, Secretary of the Sindh Higher Education Commission, extended congratulations to the graduates. He remarked, "Sukkur IBA University is recognized as one of the prestigious institutions of the country and holds a special place in my heart." Mr. Siddiqui stated, "I have witnessed the journey of Sukkur IBA University over the past many years." He emphasized the significant contributions of Professor Nisar Ahmed Siddiqui to the university, acknowledging his invaluable services in its establishment.

Mr. Moinuddin Siddiqui affirmed, "This institution is a blessing for the region, and the efforts of the Vice Chancellor Professor Dr Asif Ahmed Shaikh and the entire team to continue the legacy of Late Siddiqui, are truly commendable. I hope they will continue to elevate the university to even greater heights." He also highlighted the unparalleled support that Sindh Government provides to its universities, he stated "No province in Pakistan supports universities as comprehensively as Sindh Province does."

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Fayyaz Hussain Abbasi, the Commissioner of Sukkur, expressed his pride in witnessing the graduation ceremony at Sukkur IBA University and observing the university's continuous success. He advised graduating students to adopt an eco-centric approach rather than an ego-centric one in their practical lives.

Sukkur IBA University's Vice Chancellor Prof Dr Asif Ahmed Shaikh, in his speech, congratulated graduating students, their proud parents and said Today is not only the culmination of your academic journey but also the commencement of a new phase filled with opportunities, challenges, and boundless possibilities.

Vice Chancellor said Sukkur IBA University, with its rich legacy, has consistently produced leaders, innovators, and contributors to society. The university's growth, both in infrastructure and academic standards, emphasizes its commitment to providing quality education to students from diverse backgrounds. Professor Dr Asif Ahmed Shaikh expressed his sincere appreciation to the dedicated faculty, staff, and administration for their tireless efforts in shaping the future of these graduates. 'Your commitment to academic excellence has been instrumental in their achievements.' Vice Chancellor said.

Sukkur IBA University celebrated the graduation of 550 learners, including 463 undergraduates and 87 graduates, each adding to the vibrant academic tapestry of our institution. Vice Chancellor also congratulated those outstanding graduates who have earned recognition. Among them, 18, 8, and 9 have been awarded Gold, Silver, and Bronze medals, respectively, a testament to their exceptional performance and unwavering dedication.

Earlier, Vice Chancellor, Sukkur IBA University Prof Dr Asif Ahmed Shaikh welcomed the guests to the university's 10th Convocation and also expressed gratitude to the Chief Guests and other dignitaries, who graced the occasion. Pro Vice Chancellors Professor Dr Syed Mir Muhammad Shah and Eng Prof Dr Madad Ali Shah and Deans, Directors and alumni and their parents attended the 10th convocation.
